STOCKS STRONG

Waialua stock has already passed the $90 mark set for it on the street yesterday. A block of five shares at $95.50 is recorded today. It is quoted at $90 bid and $91½ asked and will probably not stop short of par in the rising scale. "It ought to go to par, paying one per cent," one said today and although the dividend mentioned will not come until the middle of September he is probably right.

CHINESE FROM THE MANCHURIA GETS INTO TROUBLE WITH FEDERAL AUTHORITIES.

A Chinaman named Lum Poi Chang was arrested on a Federal warrant charging him with smuggling this morning. He was taken into custody last night by the local police and turned over to the Federal authorities by them. Lum Chang has been holding a position as watercarrier for the stevedores at the Hackfeld dock and in the course of his duties was carrying a bucket of drinking water on board the Manchuria yesterday afternoon. One of the customs officers, however, noticed that the bucket was nearly as heavy when it came off the ship as when it went on and made an examination. It proved to be half filled with cigars which had been brought over from the Orient and which were being brought ashore for sale here.

When Lum Chang was searched at the police station last night he proved to be fairly wealthy. He carried on his person a draft for $800 on a bank in Hongkong, $40 in gold and $8.10 in loose change. His wealth, with the exception of the small silver, was very cunningly concealed. He wore a belt around his abdomen, to which was attached a finely made purse, containing his wealth. It will probably come in handy in case he is fined by Judge Dole, and he will not be able to take the poor convict's oath in case he is fined by the Federal Judge.

CHEAP IN HONOLULU

RATES FOR WHARFAGE HERE ARE LOWEST OF THE UNITED STATES.

One of the most valuable assets owned by the Territory is its wharves. It may be a surprise to the local people to know that Honolulu has the cheapest wharfage rates to be found anywhere in the United States. In this harbor the charge made for a vessel at a wharf is only two cents per ton for twenty-four hours, while in the majority of cities on the mainland the charge is at least five cents per ton and a toll for the merchandise which passes over the wharf is also charged.

In this line it is also well to note that with this cheap rate the local wharves pay well enough each year to make full expenses, to pay the pilots' and harbor masters' salaries and besides this to leave a goodly amount for needed extensions. The total income from the Honolulu wharves during the past fiscal year was $58,981.54.

It is interesting to notice that the receipts for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, were larger by $5,000, reaching the sum of $66,954.48. It is hard to say to what the falling off is due.

The heaviest expenses are in the salaries for the pilots and their boat boys. There are three pilots at a salary of $200 per month, making a monthly total of $600. Added to this is the sum of $240 per month for the salaries of the boat boys. This makes a total of $10,080 per year. The salaries of the harbor master and his assistant, the one at $240 and the other at $150 per month, make another annual total of $4,680 per year. This forms the principal item of expense, the repairs being provided for out of a special appropriation of the Legislature.

TRY IT FOR A DAY.

There is something about the atmosphere of Haleiwa that builds up the system quicker than any tonic one may take. Maybe it's the food and the atmosphere combined; they're both pure and there is plenty of each. The rooms at Haleiwa are mosquito-proof, the service is good and the golf links all that the most enthusiastic golfer could dream of. Take a run down a day, letting Manager Biggood know if you will remain longer, and see if you are not benefited.

ASSUMED NAME COSTS A BRIDE

GIRL'S FATHER OBJECTS TO A MAN WHO USED A FICTITIOUS TITLE.

LOS ANGELES, July 31.—Two weeks ago N. E. Miller, a wealthy Illinois manufacturer, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Florence Miller, a dashing widow of 30, arrived at a local hotel for a month's stay. Carl B. Marti, a prepossessing young man from Chicago was staying at the same hotel and he and the widow loved at first sight. They soon became engaged, the pact was sanctioned by Papa Miller and the wedding invitations issued for today. For an unknown reason, he says it was merely silliness, Marti registered at the hotel as "Marti" and when Miller heard yesterday from friends in Chicago to whom his intended son-in-law had referred him as to his character and standing, he demanded an explanation of the superfluous "n."

Nothing but complimentary information regarding the young man came from his references, but Miller has a violent aversion to assumed names and when the extra letter was not explained away to his satisfaction there was an explosion and no wedding. The young widow became hysterical but her father is unmoved. Marti moved to another hotel.

INDICTMENTS BY GRAND JURY

A NUMBER OF ALLEGED OFFENDERS PRESENTED FOR TRIAL IN THE FINAL REPORT.

Besides the report made yesterday in the Iaukea-Isoi-Iwile matter by the Grand Jury, a number of indictments were brought in. The cases are all old ones, including those of Henry Lancaster charged with arson and David Keyes, charged with stealing a moving picture machine from Father Valentin. The full list follows:

Ramon Rodriguez, rape; Wong Gook, adultery; Alexandria Maria Pah Chee, adultery; Henry Lancaster, arson second degree; David Keyes, embezzlement; K. Amo, selling liquor without a license; Meyekoa, Gouchi, assault with deadly weapon.

Before Judge De Bolt this morning Ramon Rodriguez' case was put over for arraignment till August 12. He was held under $5,000 bond. Alexandria M. Pah Chee had her arraignment set for August 18 and released on her own recognizance. David Keyes and Henry Lancaster both had their cases continued, the bond of the latter being set at $1,000. K. Amo's case was also continued till August 18.

TWO AMERICANS WERE POISONED

FATE OF TEACHER EVERETT AND FORESTER WAKELEY IN PHILIPPINES ASCERTAINED.

MANILA, July 10.—On July 4 it was that the remains of Teacher Everett and Inspector Wakeley, of the forestry bureau were recovered, together with those of their native companions, in the mountains of Pomari, Negros. Captain Ford, constabulary senior inspector of Dumaguete, in reporting the matter to headquarters yesterday by wire, stated that the murderer Ayhao and followers made their escape. The constabulary troops, which had been in constant pursuit of the assassins and in search of the remains of the ill-fated men, arrived at Bayanan, Negros, on the night of the 7th, most of the men being lame and in tatters, owing to incessant downpours and flooded rivers. Major Ahern, who will conduct the remains to Manila, is expected to arrive here today or tomorrow.

It is understood that the death of Everett and Wakeley was brought about through the poisoning of their food by Ayhao, who is believed to be a chief of one of the mountain tribes. The poison used by this fiend is believed to have been concocted of herbs and to have caused his victims to die a lingering death.
